Dear Dr. Lederberg:

When returning home on the train and going over our conversation, I was a little troubled about what I had said to you about Leo. As I recall, I said, "You know how Leo does things, in a sort of underhanded way." I did not mean to speak disparagingly at all, and I undoubtedly should have used some such word as indirect, devious, or unconventional. I hope that you understand.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for the trouble you took to show me the campus and Madison. I am looking forward to seeing you on the 19th and 20th.

Yours very sincerely,
